STRUCK BY A FREIGHT

And When They Picked Him From the Ground

JACOB TICE WAS A DEAD MAN

He Was Deaf and Dumb, and Had Been Working at Martin's Ferry in the Mill. Tice Left Here a Few Weeks Ago, and Had Been Working at the Dresden.

Jacob Tice, a deaf mute, well known in this city, was struck by a train and killed at Martin's Ferry on Saturday afternoon.

Tice was a native of New Matamoras, but has a sister, Mrs. Joseph Pool, living in this place. Another sister resides in Wheeling, and it was because of a visit to her that the unfortunate chanced to be down the river. He was employed for a time at the Dresden, drawing kiln, but tiring of the work decided to take a vacation. He went to Wheeling, and although he was unable to talk or hear, he had been left to himself so much that it was thought he could take care of himself. After seeing the sights of Wheeling he went to Martin's Ferry, and liked the place so well that he decided to remain there. He was not long in securing employment in Walton's mill, where he worked several days. On Saturday afternoon he attempted to cross the track in front of a train. He did not notice the engine, but the engineer saw his danger and peal after peal went from the powerful whistle; but the poor fellow could not hear and in an instant his body was sent flying through the air. He was knocked off the track and the train sped by. When picked up life was almost gone, and in a few minutes Jacob Tice was dead. The body was mangled, a few marks about his head showing where the fatal blow had been struck. An examination of his clothing showed that he resided at 382 Calcutta street, this city, and Agent Hill was notified at once. He lost no time in conveying the message to the family, explaining to them all the facts in his possession. They at once decided that the identification was complete, and arranged to go to Martin's Ferry this morning. Deceased was unmarried and almost 30 years of age, having been a resident of this city several years. He was sober and industrious and bore the reputation of being a good workman when he could find employment. There is another man in the family afflicted with the same ailment that cost Tice his life. The boys were seized with the brain fever when young and before they were able to walk it was found that all sense of speech and hearing was gone. Tice seemed to realize the extent of his affliction, and was at times very much cast down. The theory of suicide as was rumored on Saturday night is frowned upon by those who knew him as being out of the question. The body was buried at Matamoras.

The injury which caused death was a hole in the skull three inches long. The brains were exposed, and another large cut extended from one ear to his chin. The man was thrown 20 feet. An inquest was held on Saturday afternoon and the crew exonerated from any blame. He had in his pockets $10, and a silver watch.

He Did Not Ride.

John Clark hired an outfit from Harrison Rinehart on Saturday evening, and set out for a drive. Being compelled to call at a residence on the hill he neglected to fasten the horse, and it decided to move on. In a few minutes it was dashing through the Diamond, and after getting its location, started for the stable. It was soon caught and returned to its stall. No damage was done.

Home From the South.

Harry Smith, who has been in Nashville, Tenn., for several months, returned home on Saturday. While there he was engaged in the service of the National Fiber company, a Wells-ville concern whose members have been at loggerheads for some time. The business of the company is wound up with the exception of the sale of the plant which will take place in a few weeks.

Ice in the River.

Large cakes of ice filled the river yesterday and today making it next to impossible for West Virginia people to cross the river. The water is rising, and as the big gorges in the Allegheny have broken more ice is expected. The Joseph Cook was the first boat to move on the rise, passing up with four barges yesterday.

Covered the Fifty.

Attorney J. J. Purlinton while going over some old papers this morning resurrected a letter dated at East Rochester, Oct. 29, 1891, and signed "Democrat." The anonymous writer refers to Mr. Purlinton "unloading his campaign lies" in that town and says Postmaster David Emmons had $50 which he desired covered, as the Democrats desired to celebrate their "great victory" at the Republicans' expense. They would bet on Campbell for governor. Mr. Purlinton did not cover the money, but another Republican did and it was just like finding the cash. The incident never found its way to the public, and but for the present campaign might never have been thought of again. The East Rochester Democrat is sore to this day.

Will They Be There?

Tonight the board of health are expected to appear before council, and answer the charges made at the last session. There seemed to be some doubt as to whether the board would be present, and a News Review reporter was informed that there would be no members of the board present. A member was asked about this matter, and said that he had nothing to say. Another gave the same answer as did others who should know. "Wait and you will see" was the significant answer in almost every instance.

Mr. J. M. Kelley Retires.

Mr. J. M. Kelley, who has long been connected with the Bridgewater Gas company, has decided to retire from active business, and will on April 1 leave the service of the company. Mr. Hunter, of Rochester, will have charge of the office and the outside business thus destroying the position held by Harry Hughes. Mr. Kelley has been one of the most prosperous and energetic business men in the city, and his retirement will be deeply regretted by the large number of the company's patrons.

Passed the Hundred Mark.

A well-known young man had the honor of being the hundredth convert at the Christian church meeting Saturday night, and yesterday afternoon two more confessed Christ. Last night another was added to the list, making 103. Miss Lizzie Bebout sang three beautiful solos. Tonight Rev. Ferial, the New Cumberland soloist, will sing. Rev. Slayter will preach for the last time in this city Wednesday night, when the protracted meetings will probably close.

No More Drunks.

The meeting of railway officers at Wellsville on Saturday developed the fact that the company had decided to do away with all semblance of disorder about the passenger stations. The officers were instructed to permit no boisterous conduct or drunkenness, and to arrest all such persons, without regard to their standing. All who make stations a loafing place are to be treated in like manner, and there must be no fighting.

TO DECIDE TOMORROW

The Akron China Works May Be Rebuilt.

THE STOCKHOLDERS FEEL BLUE

And Unless Akron Pays For Locating the Plant in That City It May Come to East Liverpool—Engine and Boiler Saved—A Story.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

AKRON, March 4.—The stockholders of the Akron China company have had an opportunity to glance over their loss since Saturday morning, and there is no dodging the truth that they feel blue. No meeting was held on Saturday, and it was decided to do nothing until Tuesday, when a meeting will be held, and the conclusion will then be reached. There are some stockholders who are not anxious to have the factory rebuilt in Akron, believing that the city should come down hand-somely and keep the plant in town. They have been prosperous since coming to town and at no time has there been idleness except during the short shutdown in the holidays, when the men were out for a week or two. The company have pushed their business, and have been enterprising and progressive. It is possible that Akron will do what is right by the company, but if the people do not move in the right way, there are members of the concern who would like to see the new plant located in East Liverpool. The writer has learned from a thoroughly reliable source that the amount of insurance as given in the News Review on Saturday was correct.

The story of the fire dates from 20 minutes after Watchman Rabbit passed through the packing shed. At that time there was no indication of fire, but in a few minutes the place was a furnace of flame. The fire seemed to break out in a half dozen different places at one time, and spread with such rapidity that there was little doubt of the blaze being of incendiary origin. The suspicion upon which John Wales was arrested is the fact that in company with a number of other persons he was discharged a few weeks ago. An accident had happened at the elevator and they refused to carry the ware until the defect was remedied. Seeing the men were firm in their determination, Foreman Shenkle discharged them, and they left the factory. Wales was angry at the outcome of the strike, and was heard to say that the factory would go up in smoke one of these days. Upon this he was arrested, and the claim is made that there is a good case against him. The only part of the plant saved was the engine house, and it is now thought that the fire was started in more than one spot.

There is hope expressed here that the pottery will be rebuilt at once, but there is no denying the sentiment among the stockholders.

A NEW MACHINE.

Something That Interests the Pottery Producers.

There is a new fangled jigger at the factory of the C. C. Thompson Pottery company which is causing no end of comment among the potters of the city.

The machine is the invention of C. C. Thompson, and has been in successful operation for six months. The gentleman has been working on the idea for a long time, and, although failure stared him in the face on more than one occasion he hewed to the line, and was eventually successful. The machine was planned for the manufacture of the finer grades of ware, but can be used in the production of all kinds. The action is automatic, the only work necessary being to place the mould in position—the jigger does the rest. The special application has been to teapots, and the success has been marvelous. A presser can do from four to six dozen in the time required by the machine to do 50 or 60 dozen. The saving in labor is so marked that manufacturers have been investigating the good qualities of the invention, and already a number have decided to introduce the new jigger. The Thompson plant will be provided with a complete outfit, and other potteries will follow within the next few months. The jigger will be placed on the market, and it will soon be found in all the potteries of the land.

A New Process.

An Ohio woman, Miss Fry, has perfected a process for the application of coloring matter to the surface of pottery in the form of spray. The color may be in liquid form or as a powder, but it is blown upon the surface by means of any spray-producer or atomizer. Varied and novel effects may be produced by applying several colors simultaneously by means of separate jets, or color and glazing may be mixed and sprayed together. The color is fixed as usual by firing.

Installed the Officers.

Major T. H. Wittington, Eight regiment, Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, came here from Salem last Saturday evening, and installed the following officers of the local branch: S. K. C. Jacob Herman; S. K. L. Homer Twaddle; S. K. George Robinson; I. K. R. Adolph Joseph; S. K. T. Joseph H. Smith; S. K. G. John Mearns; S. K. S. William Wilson. The division is among the most prosperous societies in the city.

Saving the Pacific.

The steamboat Stella, with a derrick, came from Pittsburgh on Saturday night, and immediately set to work to raise the Pacific. All of yesterday the men toiled, but without success, and last night a force of 50 men was put on. They worked with a will until this morning, when the boat was raised, and made as comfortable as possible. It will be taken to Pittsburgh for repairs.

Ministers in Session.

The Ohio valley ministers of the Christian church are in session this afternoon in the church on Elm and Robinson streets. There are 16 ministers in the meeting, and Rev. Lytle, of Wellsville, is delivering the sermon. The revival meetings at the Christian church are still in progress, and five ministers will be present at the session tonight.

First Game of the Season.

Members of the Young Men's Christian association baseball club are already thinking of the coming season, and are arranging for games when the days are bright and the public appreciative. The first game will be with the Bethany college team on the afternoon of May 18 in this city. Bethany will have a good club this season.

Tried to Beat His Way.

Street railway men report the use of many schemes at the present time by people who want to beat their fares on the electric line. One man yesterday hung on the rear step of a car, crouching to a level with the window, from Wellsville to this city. He was caught unawares, and it almost broke his heart to pay his nickel.

Scarlet Fever Again.

Almost the very moment Health Officer Ozden congratulated himself upon the fact that there was not a case of contagion in the city a scarlet fever victim was reported. The patient is the 6-year-old daughter of E. M. Dople, who resides near the East End flat mill. A quarantine has been established.

Postponed the Race.

The race which was to have taken place between Delaney and Morrow at the Arlington rink on Saturday night was postponed until Saturday of this week, owing to the illness of Morrow. A number of Liverpool people who went down to see the fun had their trip for nothing.

After the Donations.

The committee of ladies from the different churches having in charge the donations for the Diamond well festival are requested to make a full report tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian association rooms. The committee make the request.

Organized a Union.

Organizer Power, accompanied by Criss McConnell, a prominent member of the Typographical union, has succeeded in establishing a branch in Lisbon. The scale will soon be presented to the publishers. Salem will be the next point upon which the union will work.

Going to England.

Local agents of the various steamship lines report business very dull at present, but anticipate many sales during the coming summer. They base their expectations on the belief or hope that the present run of work in the potteries will continue.

An Expert Pressman.

Mr. John Powell, an expert pressman who has been employed in some of the finest printing establishments in the land, is now in the job department of the News Review. The News Review employs none but the best.

Two Buyers.

L. Durand, of New York, and G. Hartwig, of Cincinnati, were in town Saturday and today buying ware. They made several interesting purchases.

BOTH ARE UNDER BOND

Schneider and Smith are Still at It.

ONE ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT

While the Other Answers the Charge of Larceny—The Wage Dispute Settled by Paying the Men—G. W. Meredith Steps in With a Big Claim—More Litigation.

The Smith-Schneider litigation took a few more strides forward on Saturday, and now the principals are wondering where they are located.

Saturday afternoon Schneider appeared before Squire Travis and confessed judgment to the claim of the workmen. Each man was paid, and the costs were disposed of in short order. Later in the afternoon Isaac Smith appeared before Squire Travis and entered a charge of assault and battery against Schneider. It seems that the men met on a street car and became involved in what promised to be a fistie battle. They succeeded in keeping their hands down, but Smith evidently believed that he had been assaulted in words, and that was the charge entered. Schneider was arrested by Constable Albright and upon pleading not guilty was placed under $50 bond to answer the charge this afternoon.

Another complication arose when Smith appeared in the court of Squire Manley, and said he was not guilty of larceny. He was asked to give bail in the sum of $300, and the squire decided to hear him tomorrow afternoon. This part of the proceedings may prove the most interesting, as a jury trial seems imminent.

When the authorities believed that there were enough cases growing out of that barge of barbed wire to keep them going for a time another complication was added this morning. G. W. Meredith secured a judgment in the court of Squire Travis against Schneider for $240. An execution was issued, and Constable Albright levied on the billiard room and barbed wire of the defendant. Schneider may replevin the goods, and Smith will give notice of a demand that the right of property be established in court.

The case is so complicated that even the principals will have difficulty in unwinding themselves from the tangle. The squires are wondering where it will all end, but seem sure of the costs.

Dow Tax is Coming.

Clerk Hanley received word on Saturday that the amount of Dow tax due the city had been sent that afternoon, and would be here today. It did not arrive, but the clerk expected it to come rolling in this afternoon. As yet he has not been presented with the bill of John Sant on the contract. The amount on the way is something in the neighborhood of $4,000, and will be appreciated.

First on Record.

Surprise was expressed around city hall when Saloonist Sullivan was acquitted on Saturday afternoon. Officers Wyman and Supplee testified that there were men in the room next to the bar, and that beer was drawn, but as they did not see it sold there was no case. The police say that this is a new ruling, and all cases in the past have been decided without further testimony.

Club Meetings.

The regular meeting of the Phoenix club will be held in the rooms of the organization tonight. Every member is expected to be present. The Columbian club has some important business to transact, and will meet this evening.

Married Saturday Night.

Charles Strauss and Mrs. Maria Bertsch were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Saturday night by Squire Jethro Manley at his residence, East Market street. The couple have many friends who wish them a happy married life.

Killed the Dog.

The dog owned by Mrs. Virginia Bennett, and known to every summer denizen of Spring Grove, was struck by a street car yesterday afternoon, and so badly injured that its death was only the question of a short time.

Another Ejection Case.

In Squire Manley's court this morning Sears Shay entered suit against James Hott, to compel him to vacate the house he now occupies, near Spring Grove cemetery. The case will be tried on Friday next at 1 o'clock.

Comes Here to Live.

G. W. Cole, of Portland, has moved to this city with his family, and will work in one of the potteries.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, MAR. 4.

NOTICE TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS of the City of East Liverpool and Liverpool Township.
East Liverpool, Ohio, March 1, 1895.
The Republican primary election, for the nomination of candidates for municipal and township offices, will be held SATURDAY, MAR. 16, 1895.

Between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock p. m.
(standard time). The names of the candidates must be filed with the undersigned secretary of the Republican Central committee not later than 5 o'clock p. m. of March 11, in order to allow sufficient time for printing the tickets. No name can be received after above date.

A separate ballot box will be procured for ladies who desire to vote for members of the board of education.

By order of the
CENTRAL COMMITTEE.
W. L. SMITH, Chairman.
J. N. HANLEY, Secretary.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

THERE are more Republicans in the Fifty-fourth congress than there were Democrats in the Fifty-third.

THEY are having a hot municipal fight in Steubenville, but the Gazette has not yet discovered the city official who got a load of hay at the expense of the public.

UNDER the head "News Notes," the Salem Herald prints a batch of proverbs presumably as old as the hills.
They always did have a queer idea of news in Salem.

PROTECTION in this country means prosperity, and the land will never bud and blossom like the rose as long as American statesmen make laws for European manufacturers.

IN the eight months ending the first of the month the nation imported $41,000,000 more in merchandise than it did last year, and the exports fell off $70,000,000. That is the way the Democrats give us the markets of the world.

LET THE WOMAN VOTE.

Since it seems certain that the women of Ohio will be given an opportunity to vote at the coming election, the NEWS REVIEW believes they should concentrate their forces, and seek the polls. To the present time the women of East Liverpool have manifested little interest in the election, and it has been freely stated that the vote here would amount to nothing. This is wrong; it is against the principles of self government, and is calculated to bear no good fruit when next the legislature meets. The women have been wanting to vote.
They have been quoting the old assertion that only women and imbeciles could not vote, and have said some things not at all complimentary to the men who make the laws. Now they must cease that sort of thing, and be consistent. They should go to the polls, drop their ballot in the box, and vote for the people, men or women, who, in their judgment, are best fitted to look after the interests of the public. They need not go howling about the country like Mrs. Lease, nor yet stand on the street corners like Susan B. Anthony, but they can step into a polling place, and with as much dignity as they are wont to use upon other occasions, they can drop a ballot into the box set apart for school elections. Thus will they not only declare their preference for office and assert their right under the statutes, but they will aid in carrying out the law, and prove that they are good citizens, who dare do what they believe to be right. But, ladies, don't put the pencil in your mouth before marking your ballot; you don't know who was there before your arrival.

A BLOODY TALE RETOLD

Further Investigations Made In Armenia.

INTERVIEW WITH MGR. KRIMIRAN.

The Massacre the Result of Turkish Mis-government and Cruelty—Armenians Revolted Against Heavy Taxes—Horrible Tales of Abuse From Turks and Kurds.

[Copyrighted.]
LONDON, March 4.—The correspondent of the Associated Press who was sent to Armenia with instructions to thoroughly investigate the stories told of Turkish atrocities in that country, under date of Tiflis, Russia, forwards the following interview with the father of all the Armenians, Mgr. Khimiran.
Additional weight is given to the statements by the fact that Mgr. Khimiran is at the present time preparing a memorial on the same subject to the czar of Russia, and it may be inferred that the substance of this statement contained in the memorial to the czar may be found in this interview. Mgr. Khirmiran's home is at Etchmiadzin, in the Ararat region of Russia, within a short distance of the Turkish frontier.

The reverend gentleman said the massacre was the result of a long period of Turkish misgovernment and cruelty.
Finally came the freedom granted to Bulgaria from Turkish rule. Then the Armenians appealed to the foreign powers and then came the signing of the Berlin treaty, which really has been of little protection to the Armenians. The cruelty of Turkish government did not cease. It merely took a new form.
But, keeping in view that there was a treaty, the Turks sought for some legal means of justifying their atrocities.
What happened? The taxes became heavier and all kinds of duties became greater and the Kurds received full permission to plunder Armenian peasants. First came protests and afterward deeds and the Armenians who understood the actions of the Turks began to revolt.

Then regiments of Kurds were organized and given the privilege of plundering the Christian Armenians. Then came the revolt of the Armenians. The Kurds were given the task of capturing the rebels in the mountains. Subsequently 3,000 Turkish regular troops, with several mountain guns were sent to assist in the work. The Armenians occupied a strong position, owing to the inaccessibility of the mountain region.
When the Turkish troops attacked them they met with resistance, but, as the Armenians had but few arms and inadequate supplies of provisions, they were eventually compelled to surrender.
During the fighting a few soldiers were killed. The Reverend Father then said:
"When the Armenians had surrendered, 150 of them, including three priests, they were thrown into a large ditch alive, despite the fact that they were not wounded. Earth was then heaped upon them and some soldiers were sent to watch them until they all had perished. After this the massacre continued, many people, old and young, were killed, and many women and young girls were sent by the soldiers to Moosh. The bodies of the Armenians, who were killed in large numbers, together were buried in common graves, but the bodies of those who were killed in isolated places were left unburied.
The Armenians who were not killed fled. Most of them came to Russia.
Some of them are now in Tiflis. Many Armenians are confined in prisons for 'political matters.' The exact number of the prisoners is unknown to me, but it must be more than 2,000.

"But, what the Turk calls a political offense has not the same significance as in western Europe. For instance, for a Christian to protect his property from plunder is considered a 'political offense' in the Turkish empire.

"The state of the Turkish prison is simply dreadful; for instance, the chief monk of a monastery was fastened to a wall, with nails driven through his hands, and was delivered from that awful position only on admitting that he had acted wrongly, although he was really innocent. On the hands and feet of several prisoners were fastened iron chains and heavy shackles of wood, while on their heads were placed instruments resembling copper pots, which were heated to a high temperature.
Sometimes these tortures ended in the death of the sufferers.

"From the information brought to me, I believe that the Kurds and Turkish troops have burned or destroyed the following 31 villages, and I estimate that the number of men, women and children killed in the Sasson districts amount to 11,000.

"These villages are: Shenyk, with 1,600 inhabitants; Semal, with 1,400 inhabitants; Cleicangan, with 2,400 inhabitants; then follow Aliantz, Uktan, Aukh, Talvarik, Akmand, Khilohenk, Telenk, P'surkhi, Akmand, Khilohenk, Merdin, Kellikakem, Berni, Akantank, Ceimbein, Cramouy, Mazreine, a second village named Mazreine, Dzorain, Sp'hgand, Teghark, Alkhovit, Mzrain, Artukon, Kourouhan, Parkah, Souranham and Hahin."

During the interview the Associated Press correspondent asked Mgr. Khirmiran what truth there was in the story that certain Armenian revolutionary leaders induced Armenians to commit atrocities on Turks in the hope of provoking outrages which would arouse the wrath of the Christian world, he replied that such rumors were absurd to obtain credence anywhere except Turkey.

With reference to the Turkish commission of inquiry he said: "The chief interest at present centers in the Turkish commission of inquiry, but I look for no results from the commission, but because it will only deal with the Sassoun matter which was only an incident in the oppression of the Armenians."

Twelve Persons Killed.

VIENNA, March 4.—A boiler in a distillery at Itzany, Roumania, has exploded, doing great damage to the building and causing the loss to 12 lives.

General McClernand Worse.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., March 4.—General McClernand's condition is worse than at any time since his illness began.

THE ROBBERS SCARED OFF.

Engineer and Trainmen Fight Trainrobbers In California.

SACRAMENTO, March 4.—Train No. 3 has been held up near Antelope station by two masked men dressed in long ulsters. They climbed over the tender into the cab and before the engineer or fireman was aware of their presence they had the trainmen covered with their revolvers and ordered the engineer to slow up. One of the high-waymen kept the engineer under guard while his partner took the fireman to the baggage car and there compelled him to uncock it from the train. He returned to the cab with the fireman and ordered the engineer to go ahead.

After running a short distance the engineer was ordered to stop, but as he saw the fireman grapple with one of the men, who laid him low with a blow from his revolver. The engineer attempted to hit his man with a wrench but he jumped to the ground and, with his companion, escaped into the woods.
The engine with the baggage car untouched backed down to the train and then proceeded to Antelope, from where word was wired here.

Given a Change of Venue.

WASHINGTON, C. H., O., March 4.—Application was made Saturday afternoon before Judge Byrns Newby for a change of venue in the case of the state of Ohio vs. Colonel A. B. Coit, indicted for manslaughter for the shooting of citizens by militia under his command, at the court, use in this city, on the evening of Oct. 17 last. No objection to the granting of the application was entered by the state's attorney, and it was granted. The case will be sent to Circleville, Pickaway county, for trial at the next term of commonpleas court, which convenes in April. Hon. D. I.
Worthington represented the interests of Colonel Coit, and Humphrey Jones was engaged to assist the state.

COLUMBUS, March 4.—Adolph Weaver, a farm hand, came to the city, and claims he was decoyed into the office of John F. Clark, a real estate dealer, and was there drugged and robbed of all his possessions. Mr. Clark has been confined to his home by illness. The officer who found Weaver discovered that he had been literally stripped. Every stitch of clothing, his hat, shoes, watch and $20 in money had been taken. He was escorted to the police station in a barrel, and the police are looking for Mr. Clark's coachman, who is suspected of knowing something about the case.

Charged With Burglary and Assault.

YORK, Pa., March 4.—Detective Samuel Wallick of this city and Constable N. P. Drobough of Codorus township have arrested Conrad Albright, a schoolteacher, and Milton Hamme and Allen Garman, all young men of Codorus township, on the charges of robbing the Albright brothers in that section last week, and also for the shooting of CONGRESS AT AN END.

The Last Session Closed at 12 O'Clock Today.

THE DELEGATES WERE SELECTED

Early This Morning to the International Monetary Conference—The Appropriation Bills Finally Got Through After Hard Fighting—Measures Passed.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The fifty-third congress ended its existence at 12 o'clock today. The last hours were consumed in clearing away the legislative wreckage.

The last appropriation bill disposed of
was the general deficiency bill, which was finally agreed to about 2 o'clock this morning.

The great crowds which had surged the galleries Saturday night and up to midnight Sunday night, made their appearance again this morning and stayed until the last.

The senate resumed its session at 2 p.
m. Sunday, having taken a recess at 3 o'clock in the morning. The naval appropriation bill was yet to be completed, with important items of two battleships and many gunboats. The debate on the bill continued through the afternoon and evening, a final vote being taken at 10 o'clock. The bill was passed, with two battleships, six gun-boats and three torpedo boats.

Early in the day an agreement between the houses was reached on the sundry civil appropriation bill, and later on the diplomatic and consular bill.

The latter measure carried the senate amendment appropriating $500,000 for beginning the Hawaiian cable. This was resisted by the house with such determination that Mr. Blackburn reported to the senate that the house would never yield, and that further insistence would compel an extra session.
In view of this statement, the senate surrendered the cable item without the formality of a division, although it was with great reluctance by the Hawaiian element in the senate.

The house was in continuous session all day with recesses from 4 a. m. until 2 p. m., and from 6 until 7:30 Sunday evening, and then on until the final ending at noon today. Before midnight the final conference reports on sundry civil, Indian, legislative and diplomatic appropriation bills had been adopted, leaving only the naval bill and general deficiency still in issue between the two houses, until they were finally agreed to this morning. Every minute, while conference reports were not before the house, a hundred members were appealing and shouting to the speaker their requests for recognition.

Speaker Crisp, in his trying position, held his temper well, and with equal hand, accorded such Republicans and Democrats as he could, the coveted opportunity to pass bills which they desired. Some 50 odd went through during the day.

The senate was in session seven hours
Saturday afternoon, and seven hours Sunday night. At 3 o'clock Sunday morning a recess was taken until 2 p.
m. The house observed about the same hours. Saturday afternoon and night were spent by the senate in consideration of the naval budget, which was finally settled today.

In the sundry civil bill, the house Saturday night accepted the senate amendment for $150,000 for the dam in the Beaver river. After a long debate the house, by a vote of 133 to 124, agreed to the senate provision for the payment of over $5,000,000 in sugar bounties. The clause for the purchase of the Blaine property was not agreed to.
A bill passed granting a pension of $100 to Major General John A. McCler-land of Illinois.

The proposition for an international monetary conference passed after a hard fight; also the senate resolution calling on the president to insist upon Spain carrying out her agreement with the United States relative to the claim of Antonio Mora, amounting to $1,500,- 000.

The senate executive session closed at 1:30 this morning and ended with the selection of Senators Teller, Jones and Daniel, by the unanimous vote of the senate, as its representatives in the international monetary conference.

Speaker Crisp has been chosen one of the house delegates to the International Monetary conference, by a resolution passed.

Probable Lynching Near Savannah.

AUGUSTA, March 4.—Charles Robertson, the negro who so cruelly murdered Miss Lawrence, at Allendale, S. C., a week ago, was caught near Savannah by a posse of citizens and brought to Allendale. The sheriff having heard of the murderer's capture, met the train at the depot, but the posse jumped the train before it stopped, hurrying the prisoner into the dense woods. Robertson was probably lynched by the citizens' posse.

ANNA IS A COUNTESS.

A French Nobleman Marries Jay Gould's Daughter.

WEDDING OCCURRED AT NOON.

Archbishop Corrigan Officiated—The Gould Mansion a Veritable Bower of Beauty. Only Relatives and Intimate Friends Present—Gorgeous Bridal Costume.

NEW YORK, March 4.—At noon today under a canopy of royal purple, Miss Anna Gould was wedded to Count Paul Ernest Boniface De Castellane of Paris. The ceremony was performed in the East Indian room of the Gould mansion, which by most elaborate preparation had been converted into a veritable garden of beauty. The wedding procession was formed in the library, just above the Oriental room, and from there passed through the great hall, hung with garlands of asparagus vine, entwining lilies of the valley and white roses. The staircases were hidden by masses of Easter lilies, while the walls of the adjoining rooms were banked high with thousands of American beauty roses and blossoms of every description. Archbishop Corrigan officiated.

The bridal party was formed as follows: First came the ushers, Prince Del Drago, Raoul Duval, Brockholst Cutting and Howard Gould; following them came Miss Anna Gould, with her brother George J. Gould. The little pages, Masters Kingston and Jay Gould, bore the bride's train, and after them came the bridesmaids, the Misses Helen Gould, Beatrice Richardson, Catherine Cameron and Adelaide Montgomery.

In an alcove jutting off from the eastern room, the bridal couple, after the nuptials, received the congratulations of their friends. This alcove was festooned with lilies and white roses, and a coronop was suspended from the arch by twisted ropes of flowers.

The number of invitations issued was small, only relatives and intimate friends having been so honored. Every precaution, too, had been taken to prevent any encroachment by the uninvited, who made a formidable assemblage in front of the Fifth avenue mansion.

Just as the marriage was performed 1,000 poor children were feasting at the Industrial schools of the city, on the good things provided by the generosity of the bride and her sister, Miss Helen Gould.

The Count and Countess De Castellane will spend the time until the sailing of the New York, on Wednesday, at Lyndhurst. Part of the honeymoon will be spent at the Turin estates of the Marquis De Castellane.

The bride wore white satin as stiff and lustrous as satin can be. The gown was cut in princess fashion, and the only trimming for the plain full skirt was a frill of marvellously beautiful lace falling from wreaths of orange blossoms. The train was four yards long. It was almost covered by the exquisite point lace veil, which fell from a coronet of emeralds and diamonds, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. George Jay Gould. The corsage was made with high neck and very full, long sleeves.

Catching the lace on her bodice, the gift of her fiancé shown with dazzling effect. The gift was designed by Count De Castellane, and was regal in its beauty. Two hundred and fifty large diamonds and two immense emeralds, the latter costing $14,000 each, were used. There was a central piece nearly as large as a woman's hand in an elaborate diamond-encrusted design enclosing one of the emeralds. Double chains of diamonds ran right and left, fastening high up on the shoulders, caught at one end by three diamond feathers, and at the other by a small copy of the center piece, also holding an emerald.

From the necklace of diamonds which Miss Helen Gould had given, among many other gifts, hung a pendant, another gift from the groom. It was an emerald as nearly flawless as those stones ever are, and the largest for depth and brilliancy that has ever been seen in New York. It was suspended in a hoop of picked white diamonds. Besides her bouquet of white lilies and orchids, she carried a fan of point lace, made in the same pattern as her veil and the lace which draped her gown.

The bridesmaids wore exquisite bridesmaids' dresses of heavy white cloth trimmed with bands of black sable fur, their picture hats of black velvet being loaded with black plumes, and they carried bunches of lilies of the valley and orchids. The groom's gift to them were pins made of monogram G. C. set in flashing diamonds.

HAWAIIAN ADVICES.

Four Ringleaders of the Rebellion Wont Hang—Queen Lili's Fate.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—Advises received here from Honolulu say:

Although the ex-queen's sentence has not been made public, your correspondent has been informed by a cabinet officer that she has been sentenced to serve five years in prison and to pay a fine of $5,000. It is understood that the sentence will not be changed by the president.

A number of sentences have been announced. Among them are those of Robert Wilcox, W. T. Seward, W. H. Rickard and Charles T. Gulick. They were the four leading plotters. Each man is sentenced to serve 35 years and to pay a fine of $10,000. These four men were originally sentenced to death, but the verdict of the court was changed by President Dole. This means that no capital punishment will be inflicted on the leaders of the rebellion. It appears that the president has been opposed to executions and his feelings were shared by members of the cabinet. The other sentences are: Thomas Walker, 30 years and a fine of $5,000; Carl Widemann, 30 years; William Greig, 20 years; Louis Marshall, 20 years.

The last two were fined $10,000 each. James C. Lane was given five years and a fine of $5,000; Samuel Nowlin and Henry Bertleman, two of the prominent leaders, have been allowed their liberty. They gave valuable evidence for the government.

V. V. Ashford, who is serving a sentence of five years for misprision of treason will probably be allowed to pay a fine of $5,000 and depart from the country. Doctors agree that if he is kept in jail he will die.

GREETINGS TO THE POPE.

He Celebrates the Seventeenth Anniversary of His Coronation.

ROME, March 4.—The seventeenth anniversary of the coronation of Pope Leo XIII. was celebrated Sunday with solemn pomp and ceremony. Preceded by all the members of the sacred college of cardinals at present in Rome, the pope, born in the sedia gestatoria, was carried from his apartments to the magnificent Sistine chapel, where most of the solemnities at which his holiness officiates in person take place. About a thousand persons were admitted to the Sala Ducale and Sala Regia, through which salons the pope was borne.

As his holiness appeared he was greeted with acclamations, many of the spectators falling upon their knees as the head of the church on earth passed along to his devotions. Diplomats, Knights of Malta, members of the patriarchal families and foreign visitors crowded the chapel. Cardinal Vannutelli celebrated mass, the pope assisting. After the singing of the te deum the procession was reformed and the pope withdrew from the chapel with the same ceremony that marked his entrance.

SHANGHAI, March 4.—It is proposed that Li Hung Chang and Prince Kung, the Chinese peace envoys, be met by the Japanese representatives at Shimonoseki, in the southwestern part of the Island of Nippon (Hondo), the largest island of Japan. If the credentials of the Chinese are found to be satisfactory, the negotiations will be transferred to Hiroshima, also in the northwestern part of Nippon, where the mikado and his court are staying.

An Old Soldier Shoots Himself.

TAMAQUA, Pa., March 4.—Moses Sassaman had loaded a double barreled shotgun, intending to shoot rats. As he descended the steps into his garden he slipped and the gun was discharged. The load entered his breast and he died almost instantly. He served during the war with the Ninety-third Pennsylvania volunteers and received a pension. He was 61 years old and leaves a wife and three children.

Japs Still Winning Victories.

HIROSHIMA, March 4.—Official dispatches received here state that the Japanese have completed the occupation of the whole district of Sai-Yen-Tai as far as Ta-Fu-Kon. The Chinese retreated slowly north after one encounter, in which the Japanese lost 98 killed or wounded and the Chinese 45 killed. On the same morning a Chinese attack on the Japanese line at Hai-Cheng was easily repulsed.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marks, Thompson avenue, a daughter.

The household goods of Mrs. F. Hallibaugh were shipped today to Fort Wayne, Ind.

A number of the local physicians report an increase in the list of afflicted during the past few days.

The trolley wire broke again at East End Saturday night, although it did not take a great while to repair it.

The report that Mrs. Shannon had decided not to become a candidate for the European trip is untrue. She is in the race to stay.

Mrs. Smith, the aged lady of Church alley, who was injured by a fall Saturday, is improved somewhat today although her years are against a speedy recovery.

A small blaze occurred at the home of J. R. Dunlap, Woodlawn avenue, at an early hour yesterday morning, the screen before a grate having taken fire in some mysterious manner.

Several from this city attended the benefit given by the Calcutta Dramatic club in Clarkson for the band Saturday night. An immense crowd made the affair a success.

The office fixtures of A. Armstrong, which were attached by T. M. Bennett, were released Saturday and shipped to Pittsburg, the attempt to settle the case having been successful.

Liberty Tent, Rechabites, gave another of their old time socials in their hall Saturday night, and a large crowd was present. The evening was one of enjoyment and the social proved a decided success.

The funeral of Mrs. McGrew, who died at her home in East End Friday night, took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Christian church, a large crowd attending the services. The remains were buried in Riverview cemetery.

A visitor at an East End house Saturday found the owner's better half perched on a chair and shrieking as though a colony of rats had invaded the premises. A small dog was having a fit on the floor, and the woman imagined the canine was mad.

The Prohibitionists will meet in the Golden block tomorrow night to nominate a municipal ticket. The cold water people have held no meeting for several months, but claim to have been working, and promise the usual great things when the election rolls around.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Bruce, a well known young lady of East End, were conducted at the family residence at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Evangelist Miss Smith, of the Free Methodist church. The remains were laid to rest in Spring Grove cemetery.

Three women in a Seventh street house spent a portion of Saturday night telling their dislike for each other while their neighbors were hoping the quarrel would end in a row, and then be settled. Officer Badgley was attracted by the noise, but could make no arrests as the house was closed.

Wellsville people are promised a sensation, it is said. A few nights ago a prominent resident of the sister city was seen on a corner of Main street with his arm in a circular position, and a young damsel within the space so caused. A ruction may be expected when the story reaches the ears of the married man's wife.

Manager Frank Swaney, of the telephone company, went to New Philadelphia this morning for the purpose of opening the long distance exchanges in that place and Canal Dover. Mr. Swaney is gaining an enviable reputation as a telephone man, and is in great demand when the general offices have work for any of the managers.

The East End agent for the Pittsburg morning papers is being annoyed considerably by the loss of his papers on an average of about three times a week. They are thrown from the baggage car of the train which formerly stopped there and roll under the car wheels. The railroad company will probably be called upon to deliver the papers in proper shape.

As the spring-like days become more frequent the practice of street corner loafing increases, although the authorities at one time ordered this stopped, and with good effect. The chief objection seems to be that ladies are insulted nightly by the tougher element, and the chances are that the police will be called upon to disperse the crowds as before.

The American Bible society held its first meeting in the Methodist Protestant church last night. Addresses were made by Mrs. R. B. Watson, Mrs. R. L. Herbert, Mrs. Alex Steele and Mrs. J. C. Allison. The society is organized for the purpose of introducing the Bible into every home in the city, and the meetings are being held for the purpose of explaining the object to the public. On next Sunday evening the meeting will be held in the United Presbyterian church.

To the Public.

There are many people still holding checks for photos upon Harry MacKenzie's Photo gallery, and these people are anxious to have said checks made good. Hundreds of delighted patrons of this gallery, located in the First National Bank building, East Liverpool, have testified that the pictures taken by Mr. MacKenzie far surpass, in exquisite style and superb finish, the efforts of any and all other artists in this section. The present owners of the gallery will make all outstanding checks good for the next 30 days, ending with April 2, 1895. Pictures will be finished promptly and satisfactorily when promised. The prices are far lower than ever before known in this section. On and after April 2, 1895, the crystal type finish pictures will be furnished patrons at $4.25 per dozen. (The same pictures as are now being supplied, through check, at $3). The enamel finish picture will be furnished patrons, now and hereafter, at $3 per dozen. The photographer in charge challenges comparison on the part of any and all photographers of this vicinity. You will do well to call at the

The owner of a prominent dry goods store desires to say that the woman who walked away with a bolt of black silk on Saturday evening and neglected to leave the $10 at which it was valued had best keep away until the silk is returned or the money paid. She is known, and the clerks have been instructed to report her presence when she enters the store. Who knows but what a sensational arrest will follow such proceeding?

A New Wheel.

The "Ben Hur," a bicycle with a good reputation, will be sold in this city during the coming summer. COLLARS AND CUFFS that are waterproof. Never wilt and not effected by moisture. Clean, neat and durable. When soiled simply wipe off with a wet cloth. The genuine are made by covering a linen collar or cuff on both sides with "celluloid" and as they are the only waterproof goods made with such an interlining, it follows that they are the only collars and cuffs that will stand the wear and give satisfaction. Every piece is stamped as follows:

If anything else is offered you it is an imitation. Refuse any but the genuine, and if your dealer does not have what you want send direct to us, enclosing amount and stating size and whether a stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair.

A Suicide Who Was Cynic.

CHICAGO, March 4.—Percy C. Chamberlain, an Englishman, has committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. He left behind him a peculiar letter addressed "To Whom it May Concern," in which he declared he killed himself because he was tired of life and for no other reason whatever. He desired that he be given no funeral, that he "did not want people riding after his corpse who cared nothing for him when alive." He said a pauper's coffin, the poorhouse hearse and the potter's field were good enough for him.
